ORDER:

In the reference first read above, the Commissioner of Social Welfare, A.P., Hyderabad has submitted proposals for forwarding application of Mr. Nalli Kiran Kumar s/o.Nalli Asirvadam, and reported that the applicant is a scholarship holder of Social Welfare Department during 2005 towards Commercial Pilot License Course from Rajiv Gandhi Aviation Academy, Hyderabad and successfully completed his course and got Commercial Pilot License (Aero Planes) with 6263 as License Number and he completed his training as Commercial Pilot in March, 2008. Further reported that, recently the applicant has cleared assessment interview conducted by Air India Ltd., for selection of candidates for Airbus A-320 (ab-initio) Type rating course and the candidate has selected as an eligible enroll in the programme and this A-320 Air Bus type rating will vastly increase his credibility in Aviation Market and therefore positively affect his employment prospects. The Course fee is Rs.24,81,755/- and the CSW has recommended the case positively for sanction of scholarship. Due to in-ability in paying fees, on the request his candidatures was considered for second batch which will start in July, 2010, subject to payment of course fee. The CSW has also reported that as per Government of India Guidelines, Commercial Pilot Licensing Course covered under Group-I Course. Consequent on receiving application from the concerned students, the State Government should scrutinize them for determining eligibility and thereafter recommend the same to the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment.

2. Based on the recommendations of the Commissioner of Social Welfare, A.P., Hyderabad, the application of Mr.Nalli Kiran Kumar has been forwarded to GOI for their consideration vide reference second read above. In turn, the Government of India in the reference third read above has approved candidature of the above individual for sanction of scholarship to pursue A-320 Type Rating Training Course covered under the scheme and advised the State Govt. to ensure that the candidate is eligible for award of scholarship under the regulations of the Post Matric Scholarship Scheme and release admissible funds under intimation to the Ministry and also requested to furnish the details about release of scholarship date of commencement of training course of CPL of A-320 by the candidate and likely date of completion of the training.

3. Government, after careful examination, hereby accord permission to the Commissioner of Social Welfare, Hyderabad to incur an amount of Rs.24,81,755/- (Rupees Twenty Four Lakhs, Eighty One Thousand Seven Hundred Fifty Five only) to Mr.Nalli Kiran Kumar to pursue A-320 Type Rating Training Course from the available funds under Post Matric Scholarships towards payment of fee to the management of National Aviation Company of India Ltd., Central Training Establishment, Ferozguda, Hyderabad. The above scholarship amount shall be adjusted against Government of India releases made under Post Matric Scholarship for SC students during the year 2010-2011.

(P.T.O..)

4. The Commissioner of Social Welfare, A.P., Hyderabad is directed to take necessary action accordingly and monitor the amount released for the purpose it is sanctioned, duly following Government of India guidelines and also furnish the information to the Government of India as required by them in their letter third read above.
